[1] Before you arrive

For your safety and comfort, it is compulsory for all to read the Kioloa fieldwork guidelines and conditions of use: <http://kioloa.anu.edu.au/accommodation/safety.php>

[2] Items you MUST bring with you

- 1 x single sheet to put over the mattress [Mandatory due to ANU health regulations]
- Pillowcase
- Sleeping bag or blanket or doona
- Bath towel etc.
- Extra items for warmth/comfort: Jumpers, coats, scarves, hot water bottles etc.
- Sensible clothing for all types of weather. The coast does get a lot of wind and rain at times.
- Sensible footwear and spare socks
- Toiletries
- Water bottle
- Mosquito and fly repellent
- Sunscreen
- Torch

[3] Items you MUST bring with you for the Program

- Your own writing/recording materials, including a hard folder, paper and pens. Please note that a hard folder is very important because there will NOT be any desks available.
- Delegates are expected to display their current research in poster form during the event. Please bring your research poster [maximum A3 size] with you to the School.

[4] Optional items to bring

- 1 x single sheet to put over you
- It will still be winter and cold but if you're keen please bring your swimmers and a beach towel

[5] On arrival & during your stay

- We will greet you and provide you with a Kioloa Information Pack and show you to your accommodation.
- Bunkhouse style sleeping accommodation is provided where you will be sharing a dorm with up to 5 other people. The bunks have mattresses and pillows. All buildings have showers and toilets.
- Under no circumstances, touch or use the fire extinguishers except in an emergency.
- Under no circumstances are fires allowed on the beach.
- Check with the Kioloa Managers first, before lighting an open-fire in the designated fire-pits. Total fire bans are sometimes in force, or weather conditions are unsuitable.
- Kioloa must dispose of its own garbage. Please ensure that you put your waste into the correct bins. If you're unsure, please ask.
- Read the water/swimming safety notices, displayed in the buildings.
- All food and tea/coffee/juice will be provided during the event. For personal purchases, there is a shop 5km from Kioloa. We will organize trips to the shop during the event.
- Wireless connection access is available in all buildings, and there are also some specific broadband access points available. If you wish to use the internet, you will need to bring your own lap top.
- All accommodation buildings have some form of heating - either electric space heating (which must be manually turned on), or small dimplexes in the bedrooms.
- Laundry facilities are available for a small charge.
- Does Kioloa have mobile phone coverage? No. At odd places some do find coverage, depending on weather, phone type, etc.
